

CB&I Martinsville, Indiana

B&W Energy Services was chosen by CB&I to perform engineered Steam Blow and AquaLazing Services at the Eagle Valley CCGT Project in Martinsville, Indiana. The facility, owned by Indiana Power & Light, retired the Eagle Valley Station in 2016 with plans to construct a 650 MW combined Cycle gas facility at the same site.

Photo Credit: Indiana Public Media

B&W's relationship with CB&I provides an exciting opportunity to expand our combined cycle power project portfolio. B&W continues to provide industry-leading services, through our ability to move quickly on projects with both detail and precision.

281.534.9300
bwenergyservices.com